

NWC Questions

for Personal Study and Small Groups 10/9/11

The Good News Review

1 Cor. 15.1-11

Purpose: to remind us of the gospel, that we might be stand firm in it and be humbled by it.

Read verses 1-11. In light of v. 14, what does Paul have in mind when he writes about believing in vain? What corruptions of the gospel are present in our day that people are tempted to believe?

Why is the death, burial and resurrection of Christ such good news?

Why is important to have a clear grasp of the bad news (that we are sinners) to be able to grasp the Good News fully?

How does the gospel affect Paul in verses 8-11? How should it impact you on a day to day basis? How can you keep the gospel before you regularly so you don't lose sight of it?

Who has God put in your life that needs to believe the gospel?

NWC Questions

for Personal Study and Small Groups 10/9/11

The Good News Review

1 Cor. 15.1-11

Purpose: to remind us of the gospel, that we might be stand firm in it and be humbled by it.

Read verses 1-11. In light of v. 14, what does Paul have in mind when he writes about believing in vain? What corruptions of the gospel are present in our day that people are tempted to believe?

Why is the death, burial and resurrection of Christ such good news?

Why is important to have a clear grasp of the bad news (that we are sinners) to be able to grasp the Good News fully?

How does the gospel affect Paul in verses 8-11? How should it impact you on a day to day basis? How can you keep the gospel before you regularly so you don't lose sight of it?

Who has God put in your life that needs to believe the gospel?