

NWC Questions

for Personal Study and Small Groups 1/15/12

Learning from Their Mistakes

Deut. 1.19-46

Focus: Choosing to trust that God will keep His promises when we are facing hardship and are afraid.

Share a time when you watched someone else make a major blunder and how you learned from it. (or a time when you made a major blunder that we all should learn from!)

Read 1.19-33. How do explain the people's choice not to trust God? What goes on in our heads and hearts when we face something or someone that we fear?

How does Satan bring the love of God into question for them? How does that happen in your life? How does that affect your ability to trust and obey God?

Which of the portraits of God that Moses used in vv. 29-33 is most helpful for you in fighting fear?

Read 1.34-46. How can we follow Joshua and Caleb's example? (see Num. 14.6-10)

How do you explain what happens in vv. 41-46? How could we fall into the same folly?

What is the thing that you fear that most endangers your faith? how can you protect yourself from falling into untrusting disobedience as a result?

NWC Questions

for Personal Study and Small Groups 1/15/12

Learning from Their Mistakes

Deut. 1.19-46

Focus: Choosing to trust that God will keep His promises when we are facing hardship and are afraid.

Share a time when you watched someone else make a major blunder and how you learned from it. (or a time when you made a major blunder that we all should learn from!)

Read 1.19-33. How do explain the people's choice not to trust God? What goes on in our heads and hearts when we face something or someone that we fear?

How does Satan bring the love of God into question for them? How does that happen in your life? How does that affect your ability to trust and obey God?

Which of the portraits of God that Moses used in vv. 29-33 is most helpful for you in fighting fear?

Read 1.34-46. How can we follow Joshua and Caleb's example? (see Num. 14.6-10)

How do you explain what happens in vv. 41-46? How could we fall into the same folly?

What is the thing that you fear that most endangers your faith? how can you protect yourself from falling into untrusting disobedience as a result?