

NWC Questions

for Personal Study and Small Groups 6/10/12

Deuteronomy 16.18-17.20

Focus: to establish justice as a God honoring priority of our church.

Read 16.18-17.13

How do you see God's passion for justice revealed in these verses?

How is justice supposed to be embraced by God's people? What does it mean to "follow justice" (16.20)? What threats to justice emerge from this passage?

How are idolatry and justice related in this passage?

How could the principles of justice be transferred to our day for our government? our church? for you personally?

Read 17.14-20

What must mark the king if he is to lead the people justly?

Which of these traits are especially important for our leaders?

Which one is most important for you to embrace and grow in?

NWC Questions

for Personal Study and Small Groups 6/10/12

Deuteronomy 16.18-17.20

Focus: to establish justice as a God honoring priority of our church.

Read 16.18-17.13

How do you see God's passion for justice revealed in these verses?

How is justice supposed to be embraced by God's people? What does it mean to "follow justice" (16.20)? What threats to justice emerge from this passage?

How are idolatry and justice related in this passage?

How could the principles of justice be transferred to our day for our government? our church? for you personally?

Read 17.14-20

What must mark the king if he is to lead the people justly?

Which of these traits are especially important for our leaders?

Which one is most important for you to embrace and grow in?