Deuteronomy 19:1-21

Focus: To call the church to justice that mirrors and honors God's own commitment to justice.

Have people tell stories of injustices they have experienced and how that made them feel.

Read 19.1-21. What protections for justice does God put in place in this chapter?

What reasons are given in this passage (first, then you can consider other scriptures) for God caring about justice so much? Do you care about justice in a way that honors God? what makes that hard for us to do?

What are things in this passage that work against justice? How can you guard against these (and other) factors that you face that work against justice in your life?

Is God prompting you to be an advocate for justice in some way? (some in your group may have a strong sense of this. Let them share and spend time praying for them specifically)
