An Invitation to Satisfaction Is. 55

Focus: to call us to say “yes” to God’s invitation to find our satisfaction in Him.

Read Is. 55 aloud. What does this chapter reveal to you about God? about His desire for you? What is most motivating for you from this chapter?

How do we fall into the snare of v.2, of spending and working for that which does not satisfy?

How do we fall short of the kind of seeking that verses 6-7 call us to?

What motivations for seeking God are found in verses 7b-13?

As you think about the church's annual spiritual priority for next year in light of Is. 55, what is God saying to you about coming to/seeking Him?

- Objective: To advance the congregation at North Wake in their experience of daily communion with Christ in such a way that they love God more, as evidenced in increased affections for God, desire to know Him, eagerness to share Him, and glad obedience to and worship of Him.
- Bumper Sticker: "Drawing near to the Good and Mighty King!"
- Goals
 - to enrich their vision of and love for Christ through the weekly teaching of the gospel according to Matthew
 - to see meaningful relational engagement with God through personal and corporate spiritual practices. Teaching on these practices should be interspersed in the preaching calendar on Sunday mornings.
 - personal: use of the Word, prayer, solitude, fasting, etc...
 - corporate: worship services - including music, preaching, communion, baptism, prayer
