

NWC Questions

for Personal Study and Small Groups 11/21/10

How to Make Your Pastor Happy

Phil. 4.10-20

Focus: to challenge the church to a God-pleasing generosity rooted in trusting His good provision for them

- Read Phil. 4.10-20. In vss. 10-12, Paul describes the radical level of his contentment. What does it mean to be "content" as Paul uses it here?
- How does v. 13 relate to Paul's contentment? How have you heard this verse misused? (without paying attention to the context) What is the "everything" that Paul is talking about here? How can you connect with Christ in such a way that you move towards this kind of contentment?
- What does v. 17 reveal to you about Paul's contentment and love for the church at Philippi?
- Why in v. 18 do you think that their offering was so pleasing to God? what principles can we learn from them about our own giving?
- Again, v. 19 is another amazing promise. How is this to be applied to our lives in light of the context? How do you harmonize this with what Paul says about having great need and being in want in v. 12? How should this truth affect your giving?
- What is the most significant thing you need to think through and apply to your life from this text? about contentment? about God pleasing generosity?

NWC Questions

for Personal Study and Small Groups 11/21/10

How to Make Your Pastor Happy

Phil. 4.10-20

Focus: to challenge the church to a God-pleasing generosity rooted in trusting His good provision for them

- Read Phil. 4.10-20. In vss. 10-12, Paul describes the radical level of his contentment. What does it mean to be "content" as Paul uses it here?
- How does v. 13 relate to Paul's contentment? How have you heard this verse misused? (without paying attention to the context) What is the "everything" that Paul is talking about here? How can you connect with Christ in such a way that you move towards this kind of contentment?
- What does v. 17 reveal to you about Paul's contentment and love for the church at Philippi?
- Why in v. 18 do you think that their offering was so pleasing to God? what principles can we learn from them about our own giving?
- Again, v. 19 is another amazing promise. How is this to be applied to our lives in light of the context? How do you harmonize this with what Paul says about having great need and being in want in v. 12? How should this truth affect your giving?
- What is the most significant thing you need to think through and apply to your life from this text? about contentment? about God pleasing generosity?